MICHELE STUEVEN * SEPTEMBER 2, 2021

Here’s a special treat for James Bond fans. In celebration of over 40 years of partnership as the official champagne of 007 and the upcoming film No Time To Die, Champagne Bollinger has introduced a limited edition bottle and gift box that brings together three icons: Bollinger’s signature Special Cuvée, the Aston Martin DB5, and the legendary British secret agent, James Bond.

The gift box, designed by celebrated Bond photographer Greg Williams, features a silhouette of the British spy alongside his Aston Martin DB5. The Bollinger Special Cuvée features 007 touches on the bottle, including “BOLLINGER 007” on the gold neck collar as well as a 007 seal in place of Bollinger’s classic blazon. The Bollinger Special Cuvée 007 Limited Edition is available today in celebration of the October premiere. Watch the trailer here.
